Hoa Túc Cooking Class brings Vietnamese cuisine to the curious and passionate alike.

First, our skillful chefs guide the "apprentices" through the local market to discover and gather fresh ingredients*. Then, they cook together under our Chefs' instruction. Finally, they sit down to fruits of their labor: delicious and nicely presented dishes that are easy to redo at home.

We also organize workshops focused on international cooking, bringing many recipes from around the world, instructed by top chefs from Hoa Túc's sister brands.

Our team is dedicated and fluent in English, making sure all participants share a joyful and memorable experience in a warm and fun atmosphere.
